Some of the negative criticisms about the vaccine are genuine; others are propaganda. Learn the differenceposted 21 days ago by REDMARAUDE +15 / -0

Let me say upfront that you should decide for yourself how you plan to handle covid. I have a background in biophysics but I don't presume authority on the subject. I'm not anti-vax but I also recognize that there are broad categories of vaccination and their value for respiratory illnesses is often overstated.

But if the media is latching on to a story, view it with an immense amount of skepticism. The media wants Biden (the establishment) to be credited with "ending covid." The fact Trump has successfully managed to bring at least 2 vaccines to the international market drives these people insane.

You don't.

Anyone telling you otherwise is an authoritarian.

99% Survival Rate-Why shut down the world? 99% Survival Rate-Why Push a vaccine so hard? 99% Survival Rate-Why the ridiculous protocols?

(Unless of course this virus is altered and a bioweapon and the general public has actually been lied to in order to prevent total panic and chaos)

In the FEMA emergency documents they state the first objective during a pandemic or emergency is to keep the public "calm" and from panicking...

So is it actually the virus is dormant inside of you forever because it's a hybrid lab virus and you're going to be sick your entire life?

(If that was the truth people would panic and all hell would break loose)
